THE KING'S BUSINESS

A weekly report of our Christian Stewardship

Attendance Last Weekend...142

Offerings Last Week...$3559

Our Weekly Financial Need...$4789

Accumulated Deficit as of December 31, 2011...$12,137

At the Church of the Epiphany all baptized Christians are welcome to receive the Holy Communion. We discourage the practice of dipping the bread into the wine. If you are uncomfortable taking the wine from the Chalice, receiving only the bread at Communion is sufficient.

Gluten-free communion wafers are available for those who need them upon request. Simply ask when you come to the communion rail.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Book Sale News: CONGRATULATIONS to the Mission and Outreach Committee who raised $1600.00 for our outreach projects! This is the best result since M&O began this fundraiser. Thanks to all who bought, donated, and helped!

The Men's Club is hosting a Ham Dinner and Almost Silent Auction, Friday, February 17th, 5 pm. Tickets are available from Robin Bolton or in the office and cost $10. per person plus one item for the auction.

The Annual Vestry Meeting takes place on February 19, immediately following the 10:30 service. Reports are due into the office by February 5.

Instructed Eucharist: Do you know why we do what we do on a typical Sunday morning? Would you like to find out? On Sunday Feb 26, the 10:30 service will be an "Instructed Eucharist" that we hope will address some of your questions. Come and see.

Found: 1 rubber Ice Grip with orange studs across from the church on Sunday, Jan 29. It can be picked up in the office.

Nursery News: We are looking for volunteers to help our parents out in the nursery. Please see Rachel Perry or sign up on the sheet in the Algoma Room if you would like to serve our young families.

Children in Worship: On January 29, the Camp Nursery moved to the South West corner of the nave, requiring the removal of two pews. This created a space where parents and children can participate in worship. This move was undertaken on a trial basis and will be reviewed at the April Parish Council meeting. All observations will be gathered and considered at that time. Please send your concerns to the wardens at wardens@epiphanysudbury.org. If you don't use e-mail, you can address your letter "To the Wardens" and leave it at the parish office .

Ordination: God willing, the Rev'd Douglas Charles Prebble will be ordained a priest on Sunday, February 12th, 2012 at the Church of the Ascension, at 4pm. The officiant and celebrant is the Rt. Rev. Dr. Stephen Andrews. The preacher is the Ven. Anne Germond. Clergy and Layreaders are invited to robe (the colour is red). All are invited to this joyous occasion and to pray for and celebrate with Doug and his family. A chilli dinner hosted by the Church of the Ascension and St. Alban the Martyr Church, Capreol will be served.

Baptism, Confirmation, Renewal of Baptismal Vows: There will be two Christian Basics Classes. One on Thursday evening and the other on Saturday afternoon. Times TBD.

The Wardens would love to hear from you! The Wardens are always available to hear your concerns, questions or comments. We can be reached via email at wardens@epiphanysudbury.org. Or if you prefer you can call us at home. Gilles' number is 705-688-5996. Bettina's number is 705-525-5979. Caroline's number is 705-677-0204.

Robert Lewis: St. Mark's Garson are hosting a retirement party for Robert on Saturday, March 3rd from 1pm – 4pm. We are all invited to attend – tickets are $10 each. Lunch is included and so is the gift. Contact Anne Germond (germond@persona.ca) for more information.

The N'Swakamok Native Friendship Centre invites the youth of Sudbury to participate in their "Cultural Connections for Aboriginal Youth" (CCAY). Please contact a program coordinator (Warren or Stephanie) at 705 674-2128 for more information. (See newspaper article on bulletin board in Algoma Room.)

Queen Elizabeth II was proclaimed sovereign of each of the Commonwealth realms on 6 and 7 February 1952, after the death of her father, King George VI, in the night between 5 February and 6 February, and while the Princess was in Kenya.

The Queen's Privy Council for Canada issued the first proclamation of the Queen's accession, doing so on 6 February.[1] It was read at Rideau Hall as follows:[2]“

WHEREAS it hath pleased Almighty God to call to His Mercy Our Late Sovereign Lord King George the Sixth of blessed and glorious memory by whose decease the Crown of Great Britain, Ireland and all other His late Majesty's dominions is solely and rightfully come to the High and Mighty Princess Elizabeth Alexandra Mary, Now Know Ye that I, the said Right Honourable Thibaudeau Rinfret, Administrator of Canada^[n 1] as aforesaid, assisted by Her Majesty's Privy Council for Canada do now hereby with one voice and consent of tongue and heart, publish and proclaim that the High and Mighty Princess Elizabeth Alexandra Mary is now by the death of Our late Sovereign of happy and glorious memory become our only lawful and rightful Liege Lady Elizabeth the Second by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas Queen, Defender of the Faith, Supreme Liege Lady in and over Canada, to whom we acknowledge all faith and constant obedience with all hearty and humble affection, beseeching God by whom all Kings and Queens do reign to bless the Royal Princess Elizabeth the Second with long and happy years to reign over us.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Arms at Ottawa, this Sixth day of February, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two, and in the first year of Her Majesty's reign.
