PARISH AND COMMUNITY EVENTS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

OUR 'GODLY PLAY' PROGRAM: with the children each Sunday urgently requires volunteers to help. To date we do not have enough volunteers to help in this vital area of our parish life. Legally the program requires two adults to be with the children at all times. According to the program this second adult is called the "Door" person who helps by taking weekly attendance and helping children with any needs that arise. The lead in the program is the "Story" person, whose task it is solely to teach. If you would volunteer please complete one of the forms available at the church entrance and give it to Christine Osmond. All persons working in the program are required to have a police check.

OUT OF THE COLD VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: Epiphany will be hosting the OOTC Dinner on Friday, February 15th. Volunteers are needed, as usual, Thursday morning for preparation, and Friday for serving, kitchen prep, and dishes. Please let Karin Zundel know if you are able to help (kezundel@gmail.com or 705-918-1797). THANK YOU!

FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK: February 15th, is the date we have asked for all annual reports to be submitted to the church office in preparation for our ANNUAL VESTRY MEETING. The meeting takes place on Sunday, March 3rd following services when we review our ministry together, nominate and elect new parish and accept the financial needs of the parish for the year ahead. Send your reports to the office at info@epiphanysudbury.org

IMPORTANT!! ACTION REQUIRED ANGLICAN JOURNAL/ALGOMA ANGLICAN

SUBSCRIBERS: If you currently receive the Anglican Journal Newspaper, along with the Algoma Anglican, delivered to your home you MUST confirm your subscription in order to keep receiving it. Please click here to be taken to the Anglican Journal subscription confirmation page and fill in the required information. They ask for your name, address and church as well as the ID number which appears on the mailing label of each copy you receive.

If the staff at The Anglican Journal do not hear from you your subscription will come to an end with the June 2019 issue. If you need assistance, please bring your mailing label from the Anglican Journal to Marion Collinson and she can help you confirm your info.

Marion will be in the office following 10:30 service this Sunday to assist

CLERGY UPDATE: For those who may have missed the announcement in church several weeks ago, Rev. Sarah wishes to share again here that she and Father Aidan are expecting another baby in the late spring. She plans to continue her ministry until as close to her due date as possible (June 2nd). Bishop Tom will continue his ministry as Interim Priest-in-Charge while Rev. Sarah is taking care of baby on a year-long maternity leave. The Armstrong family looks forward to sharing this joyful season with you!

NEW LAY READERS: We are pleased to announce that two people have agreed to become Lay Readers at the Epiphany. Joyce van Eyke and Sean Etches have begun the process and, for the time being, will assist as "Lay Readers-in-Training" before eventually being appointed as Parochial Lay Readers. We welcome Joyce and Sean to this new ministry.
